P. Provide General Guidance on Plaque Honoring David Schooley

City Manager Dennis reported that David Schooley has been a leading advocate for the protection and stewardship of San Bruno Mountain for more than fifty years. City leadership has expressed interest in commemorating Mr. Schooley's contributions. City Manager Dennis added that he has identified several possible access points into the San Bruno Mountain trail network, such as the connections near Paul and Margaret Avenues, as potential locations for a single commemorative plaque.

After council questions, Michele Salmon commented that she was concerned about fragile habitat around Paul and Margaret Avenues. She also added that this perhaps this project can be linked to the grant for Quarry Road, marking pathways to hiking areas in San Bruno Mountain.

Council directed staff to meet with David Schooley to get his ideas and to agendize the item with the Public Art Advisory Committee for discussion. Council also proposed to research other funding sources, naming rights to a trail, input from OSEC and San Bruno Mountain Watch, and how David Schooley's art can be incorporated into the piece.
